

CPHS Daily Announcements

4/24/2024

Class of 2024 - Important Reminders!

1. If you wish to decorate your cap for graduation - please get the design approved by Mrs. Faustin or Mr. Petkus BEFORE designing your cap!
2. Senior Last Day - Wednesday May 15 - Please make sure you bring a white shirt for the Class of 2024 Picture that will be taken in the Stadium prior to lunch.
3. Senior Last Day Slide Show - We need school appropriate pictures of you growing up. Please share any pictures to the CP Senior Account on Instagram. Please email Addidon Nowakowski if you have any questions.

Any interest in working in construction this summer or after high school? John Grace Construction is offering summer internship opportunities for high school students. Or, if you are a graduating senior looking to enter the workforce, John Grace Construction is also hiring. See your counselor or Mrs. Faustin ASAP if you have interest in any of these opportunities.

Today is the last day to purchase a ticket for prom. Those attending are expected to arrive by 6 pm for dinner.

Seniors: If you have any debt it needs to be paid before graduation. If your debt isn't paid, you won't be able to participate in the graduation ceremony. You can stop into the front office to check your account.

Final AP exam payments have been extended to this Friday. If you received a slip with your remaining balance, please make your payment with Mrs. Barnhardt. Payment can be made by cash or check or pay online on SchoolPay.

AP agreement forms for next year are due by this Friday. Please drop it off in the guidance office if you haven't already turned yours in.

If you are interested in running for a position for student council next year, there will be an informational meeting next Friday, May 3rd in Mrs. Scott's room during flex. Please see Mrs. Scott with questions.

Girls volleyball open gym will be this Sunday from 8-10 AM.

Varsity Softball and Baseball both won their games yesterday against Belding. JV Baseball also picked up a win last night. Good work!

Varsity Boys Basketball players, please stop by Mr. Hess's office at some point to pick up your banner.

Student volunteers are holding a Baby Needs Drive. There is a competition between second hour classes, and the second hour class with the most donations will win a donut or ice cream party. K-12 will be bringing in donations for families in need. Please bring in your donations until April 26th.

Let's go Panthers! There are a lot of athletic events going on today.

Happy Birthday: Saira L.V., Mohamed Y.

It's a great day to be a Panther!